

In 1988 she graduated from the Law Faculty of the RSU (now SFU). He received in 1993 to graduate with a degree in "Theory of law and state; history of law and state; history of political and legal doctrines "(Supervisor -d.yu.n., prof. Lyubashits VY). Currently I am working at the Faculty of SFU as assistant professor of the department of international law. In 1999 she defended her thesis on the topic "Legal culture, legal education and management pravovospitatelnym process in modern Russian society." The experience of scientific and pedagogical work more than 25 years. Lecture and lead seminars on the subject "Jurisprudence". Conducts research, I have published about 50 scientific papers, research results were presented at national scientific conferences.