

Muraveva EV She works as a teacher of the department of civil law since 2001, as a senior lecturer since 2005, as assistant professor in 2013.

During the reporting period, it performed at the Department of the following load: conducting practical training on the course "Civil Law Part 1", "Civil Law Part 2" for students 2 and 3 courses to reading the lecture course "Civil Law" for students of economic f -ta 2 year correspondence; reading special courses: "Responsibility in the field of medical activity" for the 5th year students of the evening department, "Responsibility in the field of medical activity" in the special course "Civil responsibility" for the 5th year students to.

Muraveva Elena manages the course and diploma works of students in all departments of the Faculty of Law.

Muravyova EV published 30 scientific papers.

Muraveva EV participated in the development of the network of educational information systems that form the organizational and methodological support of educational module Enterprise Portal 4.4 SFU in the direction "Development of new and unique educational programs basic (undergraduate, graduate) and additional education, textbooks, and teaching aids, etc. including electronic educational resources. "

Muraveva EV during the period participated in the 5 inter-regional and international conferences held by civil law problems: in three of them as a speaker, and two - as an organizer.

During the reporting period, training was held in the LEU CA "Network Academy" Moscow on the subject "Development of professional and managerial skills (relating to the use of interactive projection screens)"

All training activities Muraveva EV is a high scientific and methodological level.