

Ekaterina V. Vasilenko graduated from the Law Faculty of the Rostov State University (now SFEDU) in 2006. She passed the specialization in international public law. Due to her interest in the international public law she was admitted to the postgraduate course in 2006 (scientific adviser Doctor of Law, Professor L.I.Volova). After the completion of the dissertation she had presented it to the dissertation council of the Kutafin Moscow State Law Academy. In 2016 it had been tested and approved for public assertion. Ekaterina published 10 scientific articles, including 6 articles in the leading peer-reviewed scientific journals, recommended by the Higher Attestation Commission of the Ministry of Education and Science of the Russian Federation.