

Bunyaeva Maria Vladimirovna

E-mail: rosemary777@list.ru

mvbunyaeva@sfedu.ru

Lecturer, Candidate of Psychological Sciences.

Graduated from the Baccalaureate in 2007, and the Magistracy of Psychological Faculty (Southern Federal University) in 2009. Studied at SFU in Postgraduate Studies from 2009 to 2012, defended thesis on theme “Psychological Features of the Epistolary and Artistic Heritage of A. P. Chekhov” in 2013.

Works as the lecturer of the General and Pedagogical Psychology Department since 2013. Author of more than 15 publications, including works about psychological problems of Chekhov’s Studies.

Since 2014 – publishing editor of the Russian Psychological Journal and the North Caucasian Psychological Bulletin.

Main research interests: Literary Psychology, Bibliotherapy, Study of Cognitive Processes, History of the Psychological and Pedagogical Researches.

Main courses: Sense and Perception: Psychological Workshop, Attention and Memory: Psychological Workshop, History of Psychological and Educational Researches, Career Guidance of Persons with Deviant Behavior, Personal Conflicts of Youth with Deviant Behavior.