

Area of study: 44.04.01 — Pedagogical education

Master's degree program Head of an Educational Organization

Program description:

We offer:

- Training in educational organization management.
- Comprehensive expertise in pedagogics, research and management
- Skills to explore, organize and evaluate the management process by means of innovative technologies, corresponding to the general and specific laws of controlled system development

Special courses

1. State and public management of education and educational systems development;
2. Information technologies in management of an educational organization;
3. Teaching staff and its leader: management of professional development of personnel;
4. Education Management.

Graduates of the program work as heads of general and vocational educational organizations; teachers at schools, colleges, adult education centers; as public officials.