Urban Studies

A two-year program provides rigorous training in History and Economics.
The program equips you with a comprehensive understanding of the theoretical and empirical research methods used in History, Macroeconomics and Econometrics.

Master in Urban Studies

- ✓ 2 - year program
- ✓ English-taught program

Why our program?

- Rigorous theoretical and empirical studies incorporating the latest research
- Hands-on experience in developing models and using methods to perform urban studies
- It is not compulsory to choose a major, but the two-year program offers two options:
  - ❖ The historical courses bring the latest research into the classroom and equip you with the skills you need to work as a historic researcher or consultant in urban cultural projects. You will gain experience in multidisciplinary project work and employ your skills in History to analyze and solve problems in tomorrow's urban markets.
  - ❖ Economics focuses on equipping you with skills that are relevant to an economist working within the urban sector. You will gain further knowledge of urban development risk analysis and intensify your knowledge of Management for forecasting urban development.

Directors of the program

Galina
Denisova,
Doctor of Sciences

Evgeniya

Sciences

Although an undergraduate degree in economics or history or related disciplines is not a pre-requisite, applicants should have good quantitative skills or possess knowledge of first-year college calculus.

Admission requirements

A candidate must:

- hold a Bachelor's degree of a University; or a qualification of equivalent standard from this University or another comparable institution accepted for this purpose;
- obtain statements from two referees, regarding his/her suitability for the Program; and
- obtain a TOEFL/IELTS score equal to B1 level if he/she is not from an English teaching university.

Work paths and future careers

Upon completion of the master's program, you will be equipped to pursue a career as an historian or economist in Russia or abroad; work in business, government, international organizations, and research centers.

Among the Basic and Special Courses we offer: Contemporary Historical Problems of Urban Studies, Urban development risk analysis, Excursion and exhibition activities, Historical structures of everyday urban life, Public-private partnership, Theory and methodology of Humanities and Social Research, Sociology of urban development
