

51.04.01 Cultural Studies / Russian Cultural Studies

Cultural studies is a special field of interdisciplinary approaches to culture and society analysis. The programme is aimed at the Russian socio-cultural phenomenon research that covers such significant issues as history, religion, literature, philosophy, art and peculiarities of the Russian cultural archetype.

Basic discipline:

- Cultural industries: Russian experience
- Urban Studies in Russia
- History and culture of the Orthodoxy in Russia
- Gender Studies and Identity in the context of Russian and European cultures
- Soviet Science and Science in Modern Russia
- Contemporary Russian Political History

Special discipline:

- Semiotic Studies in Russia and development of the Humanities in Europe
- Religions in the Contemporary Russian Culture
- Basics of Critical Thinking and Doing Philosophy
- Russian as a foreign language
- Texts of Russian Culture: literature, history, philosophy

Programme graduates acquire profound knowledge of the Russian culture and are able to understand the depth of processes taking place in modern Russia. That will let them to work as experts at cross-cultural dialogue organization. The graduates are well prepared for analytical projects and scientific research activity, public authorities, cultural and educational organizations, museums.

Form of study: full-time

The language of the courses: English, students are given the opportunity to learn the Russian language.

Period of study – 2 years

Master programme
Serdyukova Elena
PhD in Philosophy,
Associate Professor
Southern federal university
Email: evserdyukova@sfedu.ru
Program coordinator:
Dvoskina Anastasia
socialphil@yandex.ru

Проектное
обучение

Языковая
подготовка

Базы
практик

Военная
подготовка

Стипендиальные
программы