

CV

Arzumanyan Anna B.

candidate of law

associate professor of International law department of the Southern Federal University

Arzumanyan Anna B. graduated from the Law Faculty of the Rostov State University in 2002. After postgraduate study in 2003-2007 at the Law Faculty of the Southern Federal University Arzumanyan Anna defended her thesis under the title "Immaterial goods as objects of civil rights" in 2008. In 2011 Arzumanyan Anna received the certificate of associate Professor.

Today she works at the Law Faculty of South Federal University (SFU). Since 2013 she is an associate professor of International law department.

Arzumanyan Anna is the author of over 30 scientific and educational-methodical works.

She has an extensive experience in lecturing, methodical work, legal work, organizational work. She lectures two author's courses "Legal regulation of communicative activity" for bachelors and "The legal basis of socio-cultural relations" for magisters.